System

The Master of Public Administration (MPA) at the School of Public Administration and Policy (SPAP) now offers evening classes to meet the needs of Arizona's public and nonprofit employees. Flexible scheduling and evening courses allow you to work fulltime and still get your MPA in as little as 2 years!

SPAP is a nationally ranked program providing the facilities and instruction needed to enhance the knowledge and skills of individuals seeking rewarding careers in public and nonprofit organizations.

You'll get the same quality programs and distinguished faculty that you expect from the University of Arizona on a schedule that fits your life.

Five areas of concentration let you focus on management skills in challenging fields of:

- ▶ Criminal Justice and Comparative Securities
- ▶ Health and Human Services
- ▶ Natural Resources
- ▶ Non-Profit and Local Government
- ▶ Public and Non-Profit Finance

NATIONALLY RANKED

In 2008, the U.S. News and World Report America's Best Graduate Schools ranked SPAP #36 in the nation and #7 in the West. That is out of more than 250 programs around the country!

The MPA is the most versatile professional graduate degree for careers in nonprofit and government sectors.
